Coronation and Queen's Champion

Their Royal Majesties, Gunwaldt and Ælflæd, have graciously accepted al-Barran's bid to hold the Coronation Festivities for their successors. The ceremony will be held on November 1st at the William P. Cutter Memorial Building (the Old Airport building) which is located on the southern-most end of Yale Bouelvard in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

The site will open at noon for set-up. Peer circles will be held during the early afternoon before the Opening Court and Coronation ceremony. In the evening, a grand feast is planned with a Celtic theme. The tentative menu includes:

Irish Stew and Scones
Dublin Coddle
Beef Brisket and Boiled Cabbage & Bacon
Baked Limerick Ham and Black Caps (baked apples)

The cost of the feast will be $10 (which includes site fee). If you plan to attend the Court and not eat, site fee will be $3. There is a limit of 200 feast reservations -- if you plan to attend, please make paid reservations before October 20th. All profits will be donated to the Kingdom coffers. (Your autocrat will be at Crown Tourney to collect those last-minute reservations!)

Since there are many talented cooks in our Kingdom, it has been decided that there shall be a Dessert Competition for the best dessert of the Celtic tradition. If you intend to enter a dessert in the competition, please inform the autocrat beforehand and let her know the dish and how many it will serve. Those entering the competition will have part of their feast fee refunded if they desire not to donate it to the Outlands (amount to be determined).

Gifts to the new Crown will be presented during the feast or at the tournament on Sunday. Spontaneous entertainment is always welcome during the set-up hours and during the feast. If you would like to schedule a planned entertainment, please feel free to contact your autocrat to arrange a time for your presentation.

On Sunday, November 2nd, the tournament to choose the next Queen's Champion will be held (tentatively in Snow Park -- hopefully the name of the park won't be reflected in the weather of the day!). As of this writing, the park has yet to be confirmed. A prize tourney will also be held if time and the weather are on our side.

More details about the event and a map to the sites will be forthcoming in next month's issue of the HERALD. For more immediate answers to your questions or to make early feast reservations, contact your autocrats. Make checks payable to "SCA--Barony of al-Barran."

The Barony of al-Barran will be holding its Baron's Champion and Prize Tourney on the 13th and 14th of September. The site will be the Carolina Campgrounds -- approximately 5 miles south of the old Outlandish site. Everyone is welcome to come and enjoy. There will be lots more than just fighting at this one.

Know all children that they will be required to carry someone's favor in order to enter. We will supply boffers and shields so practice up. There will be some nice prizes. There will be a class for the children in which some members of the Peerage will discuss fighting etiquette, chivalry, and courtesy in court before the boffer tourney.

Baron's Champion will be on Sunday. This is only open to fighters from al-Barran and those that are members. There will be tests of heraldry, games (along with chess), bardic performance, and dancing. Also, know this now, NO tennis shoes will be allowed unless covered or are a suitable color so as not to offend anyone. Demonstrate your archery skills by hitting a target as small as an apple. Don't forget your armor. There will be a "Surprise" prize tourney. There are several contests planned in addition to the archery and rattan lists. They include:

1) "NO!" is a word that cannot be uttered in the game of No. (Complete rules will be given to you at the time of registration.)
2) The first will be easy. Some can lead you astray. Be the first to answer all correctly, and you will be the winner of the Riddle contest.
3) Hear Ye! Hear Ye! The Heralds' have the voices. Enter this list to discover the one that is better than the rest.
4) The light of the moon will dance off of the silver in the costumes of those who enter the Best Costume of Silver Contest.
5) We haven't forgotten the urchins! There will be an egg hunt for them. They will have a chance to trade the contents of the eggs that they collect for their prize.
6) The one who finds a token in their bread can choose their consort and become the Harvest King and Queen for the evening.

The harvest was good this year, so the food will be good and plentiful. The harvest feast will include:

Assorted Breads	Fresh Fruits
Meat Pies	Squash
Wild Rice	Cornish Hens
Pumpkin Pie	Apple Cider

The fun and excitement will be on September 20, at the Roy Walker Community Center. Lists will open at 11:00 a.m. Feast will be at 6:30 p.m. Site fee is $1.00 and feast fee is $4.00. Alcoholic beverages can be consumed at a post-revel site a few blocks away. Limited crash space is available. Please call first. Hope to see you there!!!!!

FORTRESS BENEFIT REVEL

The FORTRESS Benefit Revel will be held on Saturday, September 27, 1986, at the Glendale Community Center at 999 South Clermont in Denver, just a stone's throw from Saint Andrews Seminary.

For those who are new to this event, it is a fund-raiser for the Baorny of Caerthe's newsletter, the FORTRESS, which is not able to publish and mail on the money raised by subscriptions. It is important to us of the Barony to contribute what we can to this important Barony asset.

The autocrat is Baroness Judith de Beaumont. Please contact her at (303) 399-2971 with any questions, suggestions, to volunteer your services, or, especially, to donate items.

DEMONSTRATION

Fontaine dans Sable is having a demo on October 11, A.S. XXI. This may be a date you will want to mark on your calendars because this will be a very exciting and entertaining affair. We are holding our demo in conjunction with Farmington's annual Four Corners Cultural Heritage Festival. The fighting will be outdoors at the Farmington Civic Center and we will have a booth inside. There is no shade outside, but plenty of running water and restrooms inside.

There will be many countries represented and many mundanes coming to watch. Better yet, we of the Society for Creative Anachronism could be the center of attention with our demonstration. This is why we hope you mark your calendars and make plans to attend. Not only will it be fun, but we need you. There is no sight fee.

WE NEED LOTS OF FIGHTERS AND DANCERS AND PLENTY OF CITIZENS IN COSTUME!!!!

The booth inside will be predominently French, as this was the only way we could participate; however, dress in your personna as I'm sure there will be some French represented.

We will get started at 11:00 a.m. and finish our activities at 5:00 p.m. Then at 7:00 p.m. we are planning a feast titled "The Feast of Four Cultures". Nykolette Courcy de Navarre is directing the preparations and planning the menu. We must charge a small fee of $3 for adults and $1 for children under 12, but there will be plenty of good eating and everyone should leave "stuffed". This feast will be in the Salmon Ruins main building and will be wet with some moderation.

The Feast of Four Cultures:

Course the First:	China -- prepared by Leah of Bukhara
Course the Second:	Rome -- prepared by Rhiavel Anghared of Culduin
Course the Third:	France -- prepared by Lady Constance le Royer de la Tour
Course the Fourth:	Eastern Mediterranean -- prepared by Nykolette Courey de Navarre

There will be crash space available, but please call in advance so we can make arrangements. We would prefer you call prior to October the 4th.

Grand Offender

Unto the good gentles of the Kingdom of the Outlands, I, Jagonam Poing d'Eclair, Abbot of the Moth Eaten Order of St. Golias, send warmest greetings.

It is my great pleasure to announce that on the last weekend in September, being Saturday the 27th and Sunday the 28th, I and my good friend Aldric MacGlynn will be hosting the third annual Grand Offender Tourney. There will be several changes this year, so please take note of the revised description.

The events this year, in order of appearance, are:

Punning Contest
Most Offensive Costume Contest
Most Outrageous Codpiece Contest
Boffer Tourney
Odd Weapons Toss
Race of Drinks
Bardic Competition
(best song, best story, best tavern song, most offensive performance)
Auction of Delights of Touch
Lechery Contest
Archery Contest
Quest
Seneschal Man- (or Woman-) Handling Contest

Opening Court, hopefully with Royalty (otherwise we can only have an opening patio), will open (as opening ceremonies should) at 12:00 NOON. The site opens Friday evening at about 6 p.m. I regret to mention that there will be no feast, but I will have a stall open to sell meats, cheeses, breads and fruits during the days, subject to supply. Closing Court will be at about noon on Sunday, at which point the competition for Grand Offender will conclude.

A Note on the Grand Offender Competition: This tourney was created to bring out the best of the worst that the Society has to offer. To be a truly Grand Offender, one must be skilled in many different areas. Punning, dress, and silliness are three major attributes, but entertainment is the name of the game. Thus, the following events are the only ones NOT required for the Grand Offender Competition: Lechery, Archery, and the Quest, although these are advised. Also, the competitions at the Bardic are separate, but only one must be entered for the Grand Offender.

"Offense is a skill which must be honed, for it is also a sword which cuts two ways." -- James the Namer

Unfortunately, there will be a site fee for this event. I must ask that all comers pay a tax of two dollars and ninety four cents for the event. Also, it is a camping event, with plenty of space, so please bring your camping gear. The site is, once again, the Escondida Lake Park. It is about seventy miles south of al-Barran, and seven miles north of St. Golias. Take the Escondida turn off (yes, it is labeled as such). Head east, toward, and through Escondida, until you reach a dead end, then turn left (north). Turn off at the park sign. Consult the map, and watch for SCA signs. Good Luck!

NO HERALDS TOURNEY

Because the Feast of St. Iric falls on Crown Tourney Weekend, the Peasant's Revel will be blessed with the presence of the old olive eater himself. Although orthodox followers may enjoy olives, wine and puns on the first weekend in October, Caerthe will celebrate his martyrdom at our annual harvest festival. Earlier in the day, any rattan fighter may compete in the Second Annual "No Heralds" Tourney. This tourney will also be at St. Andrew's beginning at 1:30 P.M. There will be a real prize and an unreal prize for the victor. Site fee for those attending only the Tourney will be $2.00. For information, call Lord Iric, 449–2479.

Baroness of al-Barran's Favor Tournament

Come one, come all to the last al-Barranian camping event of the season, being the Baroness'Favor Tournament, set for the 27th and 28th of September. The site is the old Grand Outlandish site, Cedro Peak. The evenings promise to be cool and damp, but if we build enough fires and huddle close enough together, we should all be comfortable.

Please remember that there is no water or firewood at this site, so bring an ample supply of each.

Saturday will bring a much requested Woods Battle and a Membership Prize tournament, for which the victor will also receive a tassle made by the Baroness. There are no special requirements for either of these two activities, however, there are a few for the favor tournament.

Those who would enter the Baroness' Favor Tournament must be paid members, and someone at their residence must receive the Baronial Shaft. To be eligible for participation fighters must be able to recognize the Baroness's device. As in the Baron's Champion Tournament, fighters must also carry onto the field a representation of their own device, such that each might be identified. And finally, all who would enter the Favor Tourney must provide entertainment to her Excellency by way of a period style story, song, instrumental presentation, or dance prior to the commencement of the tournament. So that others might be delighted as well, a bardic circle will be held on Saturday evening during which contestants are encouraged to make this contribution. Being that wood is scarce in these woods, you are encouraged to bring a contribution for the fire as well.

The Favor Torunament will be held Sunday, as early as her Excellency is able to get herself organized. Our good heralds will be awarding prizes for heraldic displays of your submitted devices this weekend also. Please consult with Fretty or her associates for ideas.

There will be a $2.00 site fee for adults, $1.00 for children under twelve. You're welcome to move up earlier (it would help to secure this non-reservable site, but most of us won't be there until Friday night.

Her excellency would welcome suggestions and assistance.

PEASANT FEAST AND REVEL

It has been a full year since anyone has seen a peasant in the Barony of Caerthe. We have heard rumors that there are many woodcutters, tinkers, weavers, tillers and other members of the lower classes dwelling among us and it is our intent to bring them out of hiding. Therefore, the ninth Peasant Feast and Revel will be held on October 11, 1986, at St. Andrew's Seminary, 1050 S. Birch St., near the corner of Colorado Blvd. and Mississippi Ave., following the "No Heralds" Tourney.

This is your opportunity to put aside the cares and responsibilities of your lofty positions and frolic in the guise of lowly peasants. There will be a fine feast, peasant games and dancing. Traveling actors, tale spinners, and musicians will offer entertainment. A game of Medieval Charades is planned for those who wish to portray their favorite nobles of Period history, and there will be a re-enactment of the martyrdom of St. Iric. Setup will be at 5:30 P.M. The feast will begin at 6:30 and will feature traditional peasant fare:

Lentil Soup	Cheese
Meat Pies	Beef Sausages
Bread & Butter	Fruit Pies

Reservations for the feast must be postmarked by October 2. The charges for the feast, which include site fee, are $5.50 for adults and $3.00 for children ages 6 through 12. Children five or under admitted free. Make checks payable to The Barony of Caerthe and mail to :

Lady Amelia von Altburg
9901 East Evans Avenue, #28D
Denver, CO 80231

The revel will begin after the feast has ended, around 8:00 P.M. Site fee for those attending only the revel will be $2.00, payable at the door. For further information, or to offer assistance, call the Autocrats, Lady Amelia, 329-8528, or Master Robin, 444-5004.

OUTLANDS KINGDOM STANDARDS FOR HEAVY WEAPONS COMBAT -- June 15, A.S. XXI (1986)

The SCA standards for fighting and marshalling heavy combat are adopted except as follows:

1. Bar stock of less than 3/16" will not be used for grillwork or faceplate construction in helmets.
2. Hardwood shafts will not be used in any weapon, including those used solely for thrusting.
3. For Crown Tournament, shields will be constructed of period materials or will weigh at least two pounds per square foot. Period materials, in this case, means solid or laminated wood of at least 1/2" thickness, and edged with steel. The edges of the shield will be padded to prevent unnecessary damage to opponents' weapons.
4. Circling a downed fighter, except while disengaged and in order to enable the fighter on his knees to face out of the sun, is prohibited. Circling, as used here, means the attempt to maneuver in to attack in such ways that the fighter on his knees cannot engage his opponent. An area directly to the downed fighter's front and extending 45 degrees left and right of this line is open to attack without being considered circling.

LONELY MOUNTAIN BARDIC COMPETITION
October 11 and 12, 1986
The Sheriff's Posse Shack, North Mesa, Los Alamos, New Mexico

The Shire of Anlieplic Dun takes great pleasure in announcing the Lonely Mountain Bardic Competition. Along with the competition, there will be a feast and, if there is enough time and energy, workshops.

The Competition

There will be the following categories and we will award prizes in each.

1. Traditional Ballads
2. Original Ballads (period theme and style)
3. Bawdy and tavern songs
4. "Filk" songs
5. Original Compositions (period style)
6. Original stories or poems (period theme and style)

Please use the above category numbers when registering. Although the competition will be limited to presentations in these 6 categories, demonstrations and performances from other of the bardic arts will be welcome.

Performances will be strictly limited to 10 minutes or less; longer performances will be terminated and the entry will be disqualified.. Entries must be accompanied by appropriate documentation (that is, sources for period material, written transcriptions for original material, and so on), and the performer(s) will be expected to give a brief oral introduction to their work. If possible, and with permission, we would like to publish a compilation of the material presented at the competition. There will be no Grand Champion; we hope to promote excellence in each category. The competition will begin at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday and will end about noon on Sunday, with prizes to be awarded soon thereafter.

Food, Fees, and Crash Space

The feast will be held on Saturday night, so you will need to bring feast kits. We will be accepting 50 reservations for the feast and the deadline for reservations is September 30 (Sunshaft has the wrong date!) The menu will be given next month. Also, Mistress Julia has once again offered to make lunch for the event (for a small fee) so that we will not have to go in search of food. Crash space will be available; please contact Mistress Julia for arrangements (address below). There will be the following fees for this event:

Site Fee: $3.00 per person (covers both days)
Competition Fee: $0.50 per entry
Feast Ticket: $6.00 per person

Please make checks out to "The Shire of Anlieplic Dun."

The Site

The Sheriff's Posse Shack, on North Mesa in Los Alamos, is a log building having a large main room with toilets and kitchen facilities in the back. The main room has a beamed ceiling and fireplaces on both ends. There will be no refrigerator space available at the site, so you might want to bring ice chests. There are picnic facilities nearby, and stores, restaurants, and motels are within 5 miles. There are camping areas within 13 miles.

KINGDOM OF THE OUTLANDS
OFFICE OF THE SENESCHAL

Greetings unto the populace of the Outlands:

Foremost in the news at this date is Crown Tourney. Crown Tourney will be held in the Barony of the Citadel of the Southern Pass the first weekend in October. All fighters and consorts should read carefully the Law changes that were published in the August OUTLANDISH HERALD. Of important note are the new responsibilities for the oath-helper and that the consort must attend the Tourney. A new additional requirement that may take some time for preparation is the display of one's arms of an entrant or consort.

Actually, this has been a very quiet time for my office, not that I'm complaining. A number of things are starting to get finalized such as Financial Policy, Awards, and various other things. One other item that is finalized is that I am moving to the Barony of Caerthe. I will be moving the end of this month, so those that write me, please note the new address in the front. As soon as I have a phone number, I will disseminate it out to the local Seneschals. If there is something of urgency that can not wait to be sent through the mail, contact the Crown.

I would like to reiterate the need for articles and artwork for the OUTLANDISH HERALD. It matters not what your title or awards are, all are encouraged to submit things. The quality of the newsletter greatly reflects in other peoples eyes the quality of the Kingdom as a whole.

Yours, In Service to the Outlands,

Giovanni

Lord Giovanni di Sienna, Outlands Seneschal

College of al-Barran

Planning for the A.S. XXI Session of the College of al-Barran has begun. The primary emphasis will be on personna development, but other 'enrichment' courses will also be provided. Please watch for more detailed articles in the October issue of this newsletter.

To date we have in mind: personna determination (who am I); researching names; dressing your personna (sources, fabrics, styles); games; and survival lists (first aid kits, camping checklists, feasting checklists). YOU CAN HELP by sharing your ideas and by volunteering. Let us know about classes you'd like to see or would like to teach.

The date is November 15th (Note it has been postponed), the site will probably be the new International Center on the UNM campus. Activities will not be limited to class attendance, although fees, excluding those for site and food, are charged only to students (instructors receive one class free in exchange for the one they teach whenever we can afford it). GREETINGS UNTO THE POPULACE OF THE OUTLANDS:

The Outlands Kingdom Standards published in this edition of the OUTLANDISH HERALD are to be used in conjunction with the MARSHAL'S HANDBOOK of the Society. The following marshals were warranted on June 15, A.S. XXI. Seneschals and autocrats may choose from this list when planning their fighting events. Any Outlands fighter or marshal who wishes to be warranted-at-large should contact this office.

Sir Jochen von Balduinseck
Earl Marshal of the Outlands

Warranted Knight Marshals of the Outlands:

Sir Jochen von Balduinseck (Outlands)
Viscount Eldr Fredrickson (al-Barran)
Bylo Boug (Citadel of the Southern Pass)
Teran (Freehold of the Great River)
Lord William LaValliere (Caer Mithin Halle)

Sir Theodric ap Breken Beaken (Caerthe)
Lord Haroun ibn al dhib al Adyadh(Dragonsspine)
Lord Needham Bledsoe (Aarquelle)
Cormac MacBordan (Unserhafen)
Lord Leif Ivarson (Dryganstan)
Sir Olaf Bhornsson (at-large)

Greetings unto the good people of the Outlands!

There has been some discussion of late as to advertising in local newsletters. In a recent missive from Mistress Hilary of Serendip, Steward of the SCA, she briefly reviewed the Board of Directors' discussion on the topic. I think that this information is best distributed through these pages, but please take into account that the following quote is cited from Mistress Hilary's informal and unofficial summary of the meeting.

> "The Board agreed with the Treasurer that the work involved in accounting for taxable advertising income below the Kingdom level would be impossible to deal with. It's not just a matter of filling out forms - there's a whole system of accounting which would have to be learned and practiced by each local chronicler. However, local newsletters need not be cut off from sources of funds in their communities, since they are free to follow the example of pubic broadcasting stations, which routinely accept help from merchants or manufacturers and express their gratitude at frequent intervals. While they may not sell and publish advertising rates, and should avoid printing obvious formatted ads, local newsletters can certainly run things like "this page courtesy of Joe's Hotshot Armory (phone), specializing in guantlets and articulated feet!" The Kingdom newsletters and TI will continue to run (and report) advertising. They will be held responsible for any taxes due as a result of their activities."

If anyone has any questions regarding advertising, please feel free to write me for further information.

ARE YOU MOVING? Changes of address take as long to process at the SCA Registry as memberships. Remember that changes made by the end of the month are reflected in the month after next newsletter. In other words, if your change of address (or membership information) is processed by August 31 then the mailing labels for the OUTLANDISH HERALD will show the change for October's newsletter (which is mailed by September 20th). If you are intending to enter or have favor carried in Crown Tourney, remember you must live at an address where a copy of the HERALD arrives -- you only have a few days (or none) to beat the August 31st deadline to get on October's membership list!

I'm still waiting to hear from more applicants for Deputy Chronicler! Keep those cards and letters coming.

In Service to the Outlands and her people!

Kathryn

Outlands Chronicler

Benefit Revel/Raffle

The annual Caer Galen Benefit Revel Raffle will take place on Saturday, Nov. 29, at 7pm. We will be raffling many donated items. All items will be raffled individually. An IKCAC (Interkingdom Combat Archery Competition) is now being developed for next year. A questionnaire has been created to help provide information needed to determine what form the competition may take. This is your chance to express your ideas for an interkingdom competition. Those returning the questionnaire will receive a draft copy of the rules this fall for testing and comment.

Remember this year's IKAC rules have some changes from last year's set. If you do not have this year's rules, please send for them.

For copies of the IKAC rules or IKCAC questionnaire, or other questions, contact: Sir Jon Fitz-Rauf, c/o John R. Edgerton, 7662 Wells Avenue, Newark, CA 94560-3530, or call (415) 791-9070.
